She was a young lady that was loved by all who knew her for her gentle disposition and upright character. Her remains were interred in the Mt. Olivet Cemetery. Her parents have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

FISCAL COURT

Court met yesterday morning at the usual hour, Judge C. D. Newell presiding, together with County Attorney Slattery and all Magistrates present.

H. H. Rosser was re-elected Superintendent of County Infirmary without opposition, and his salary fixed same as last year, $600, and he to furnish matron.

Dr. S. R. Harover and Dr. H. K. Adamson were placed in nomination for Infirmary Physician and a vote being taken resulted as follows: For Harover—Cooper, Kirk, Wallingford, Frazer and Dye. For Adamson—Boyer, Calvert and Pickrell. Dr. Harover having received a majority of the votes cast was declared duly elected. The salary of Infirmary Physician was fixed at $250 per year.

Dr. A. G. Browning was re-elected Jail Physician without opposition, salary same as last year.

Howard Rosser, Infirmary Superintendent was allowed $50 for extra services during the late floods.

Ordered that the sum of $200 be placed in the hands of Squires John C. Kirk and John W. Boyer for the purpose of constructing a bridge over the West Fork of Limestone Creek on the dirt road leading over Hord's Hill, for the grading of said road; payable by order upon the General Claims Fund on condition that the balance for a decent grade and good bridge be raised by private subscriptions. All voted aye except Squire Dye.

Action on the proposed Turnpike in the Fernleaf neighborhood was postponed.

The report of the Infirmary Physician was produced in Court and ordered filed.

The Future Happiness of the Bride and Groom

Is largely dependent upon the home. No matter how hard you try, it's absolutely impossible to be thoroughly happy and contented in barren, half-furnished apartments; you simply can't make it seem home-like.
